

SILVER HORIZON CHIANGMAI 2025

5 DAYS/4 NIGHTS SILVER HORIZON CHIANG MAI RETREAT JAN 19-23, 2025

The best time of year to go to Northern Thailand is January, the so-called Thailand “winter”, which has the best climate you can get. Winter in Chiang Mai brings a refreshing change, with daytime temperatures averaging 20°C to 30°C. This cooler climate, a welcome break from the hot and humid conditions typical of other times, makes winter an ideal season for exploring the charming city.

It is known for its unique natural phenomenon where the rocks in the park have a sticky surface, allowing visitors to climb them effortlessly. One of only two limestone waterfalls in the world (the other one is in Turkey), it is not widely advertised to foreigners, but a truly spectacular and special place to visit. Nearby is the Nam Phu Chet Si which literally means 7 colours fountain, a mineral geyser containing calcium-carbonate, gushing from the ground and then overflowing streams and Bua Thong waterfall. Its streambed is solid white, glittering crusted with calcium carbonate. Sunshine reflected from the clear flowing and falling water, as well as the white streambed, makes for quite impressive natural scenery. The park offers stunning views of the surrounding lush greenery and a peaceful atmosphere. At the same time, let’s enjoy local Thai snack called Khao Lam and a Thai herbal drink before we head for dinner at a local restaurant and return to our resort

Enjoy walking around the flower gardens and explore the fruit markets where avocados, strawberry, persimmons, oranges and pomegranates as well as vegetables are on sale at very reasonable prices.

Nearby is the Nong Hoi Royal Project development centre at 1400 msl that has helped hill-tribe people with growing cash crops turning their once opium cultivation into high-income crops such as strawberries, various kinds of vegetables, herbs and lavender. Not forgetting too, in the midst, why not enjoy a cup of hot coffee while enjoying the stunning view and a peaceful vibe before lunch at a local restaurant. We then return to our resort to freshen up before we embark on another activity – Kachai Fish Mobile workshop. This involves making Carp hanging mobile from Thai palm leaves. It is believed that in ancient times, elderly people would make them by hand and give them as gifts to their children to bring good fortune and protection from evil.
