DAY 4 (17 Dec Sat): Bangkok – Mae Klong Breakfast at hotel. This morning we venture to the south-western part of Bangkok crossing the Chao Phraya River to Mae Klong in Samut Songkram province. We drop by the Mae Klong Railway Market, once a hidden gem in Thailand that few people knew or cared about. It is a 100-meter long market that just happens to be located along an active train line. Eight times per day, a train passes through this market and the vendors have to pull their awnings up and their goods back away from the tracks to let the train pass. Then we drop by the Klong Chakpra floating market which features mostly products from gardens in this area such as fresh vegetables, fruit, fish and a lot of food. Returning to Bangkok, we enjoy a seafood lunch at Michelin Guide Mae Klong Seafood, famous for its steamed mud crab with molten crab roe! We drop by the Icon Siam – one of the best and latest shopping centres in the world! Finally we end of our day with a Thai royal cuisine at the Michelin Guide Ruen Mallika Restaurant. Back to hotel for overnight (Baan Thai Boutique Hotel)	BLD Prepare SG Arrival Card health and travel history declaration
